Fruit Resulting from the Course as Described by Course Participants

- More patience with myself.
- Taking more time for my personal rest and care.
- I've gained more spiritual boldness.
- I received more of God's love. It's been overwhelming!
- A greater confidence to promote the concept of Mind/Body/Spirit health with my clients
- Kindness and patience. I feel more connected to others now, and that includes difficult personalities at work with which I have been struggling for quite some time.
- I've taken more of the opportunities the Lord puts before me to share my faith with others. I learned that wherever he plants us is where we are to serve.
- I'm ready to share God's truths for health and wholeness.
- I released bitterness, shame and guilt.
- The cohesion of the nurses into a team was accomplished largely in part due to the course, which was an intentional part in taking the course together.
- Confidence in presenting faith and health concepts to others in various environments.
- Better able to see my spouse's fears after I was able to see my own. This resulted in supporting him better when he needed it instead of making things worse by reacting to his bad choices.
- At work I'm able to better discuss my revelations and help those who are going through what I have been through because I have an awareness of the root issues. This insight will also come in handy in the PathWay 2 Wholeness Bible Study that I will be facilitating.
